

Kudzu Company Credit Repair (KCCR) Privacy Policy for Clients

While information is essential to provide superior service, our most important asset is our client's trust. Keeping client information secure and confidential is KCCR's top priority.

The following is the Privacy Policy for clients: KCCR will safeguard, according to strict standards of security and confidentiality, any information our clients share with us. KCCR will always maintain control over the confidentiality of client information. KCCR will not share client information with any outside organization unless we have been authorized by the client, or are required to do so by law. Further, KCCR will not rent, lease, sell or in anyway share client information to any outside organization or individual. KCCR will limit the collection and use of customer information to the minimum we require delivering superior service to our clients; this includes advising our clients about our services and administering our business. KCCR will permit only authorized employees, who are trained in the proper handling of client information, to have access to that information. Employees who violate our Privacy Policy will be subject to KCCR's disciplinary procedures. KCCR may hire other organizations to provide support services, when this happens KCCR will require them to conform to policy standards and to allow us to audit them for compliance. KCCR will continuously assess procedures to ensure that customer privacy is respected. KCCR will conduct business in a manner that fulfills this policy. This policy is subject to change at any time.
